Signature Control Systems Completes Purchase of Bear Irrigation

Offering Solutions for Global Golf, Sports Turf and Commercial Markets

IRVINE, CA (June 9, 2006) - Signature Control Systems Inc. announced today that the company has completed the purchase of Bear Irrigation from Grizzle & Hunter Plastic LLC.

"The acquisition of Bear Irrigation completes an important part of our business strategy: to expand into new markets and increase product development. It also supports our current business strategy of strategic alliances," said Brian J. Smith, Chief Executive Officer of Signature Control Systems.

The acquisition of Bear Irrigation creates solutions for a wider set of customer needs and provides Signature a significantly greater opportunity to grow into new markets, particularly in the golf, sports turf and commercial turf management segments. "By combining our intelligent controllers, desktop and web-based software – and increasing innovations planned for plastic rotors, sprinklers and valves – Signature has the opportunity to bring to our customers an industry-defining technology platform," said Smith.

Both domestic and international distributors of Signature are integrating the new product offering which is immediately available.
