FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Signature Control Systems Expands International Technical Service Team

Company is experiencing rapid growth in the Middle East

IRVINE, CA and PARIS, FRANCE (March 31, 2008) - Signature Control Systems, Inc. has strengthened its International Technical Staff by expanding its team to include Raphael Aouad as Technical Service Manager for the Middle East Region. Raphael will be based out of Beirut, Lebanon.

In his role, Raphael will focus on providing state of art service and training to Signature's customers and distributors throughout the Middle East and will report directly to Signature's Area Manager, Mohanad Ayoubi.

"We have been present in the Middle East for over three years and have installed numerous prestigious projects and achieved great results. Our primary focus is to ensure each and every customer's satisfaction with our products. As the customer base is growing rapidly, it is now the right time for our company to take a further step in customer care by adding additional local and permanent resources," says Michel Arbadji, Signature's Director of Operations for Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Raphael was previously working as a foreman for IGM international, a large contracting company, based in Beirut and covering many countries. "I joined Signature because of its expertise in technology and its reputation in the region. Signature stands out from its competition because of the innovative product line. A lot of thought has gone into creating products that are posed to have a significant impact on water management and conservation efforts." Aouad said.
